

West Midlands Cerebral Palsy and Spasticity Network meeting

Wednesday, 18th November 2015

RCPCH has approved this activity for up to 6 CPD credits, in accordance with the current RCPCH CPD Guidelines

- 08:30hrs Registration and refreshments
- 09:00hrs Introduction
Steve Cooke, Consultant Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgeon, University Hospitals Coventry & Warwickshire
Ram Vadivelu, Consultant Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgeon, Birmingham Children's Hospital
- 09:15hrs Evidence and current practice in the use of botulinum toxin
Emma Shears, Consultant Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgeon University Hospitals North Midlands
- 10:00hrs Update on the use of intrathecal baclofen in cerebral palsy
Steve Cooke, Consultant Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgeon University Hospitals Coventry & Warwickshire
- 10:30hrs Commissioning for specialist services
Rob Freeman, Consultant Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgeon Robert Jones & Agnes Hunt Orthopaedic Hospital
- 11:00hrs Refreshments
- 11:20hrs Cerebral Palsy Integrated Pathways
Mark Gaston, Consultant Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgeon, CPIP Scotland, Royal Hospital for Sick Children, Edinburgh
- 12:00hrs Discussion regarding the potential for clinical research – what are the questions we want to answer?
Facilitated by Andy Metcalfe & Simon Gates, Associate Professors Warwick Clinical Trials Unit
- 13:00 hrs Lunch
- 14:00hrs Discussion regarding the potential for clinical research – continuation of above and discussion about starting multi centre trials in the West Midlands
Facilitated by Simon Gates & Andy Metcalfe, Associate Professors Warwick Clinical Trials Unit

15:00hrs	Plans for the introduction of CPIP in the West Midlands Group Discussion
15:30hrs	Post Intervention Physiotherapy Anna Fry, Clinical Lead Physiotherapist Coventry & Warwickshire Partnership NHS Trust
16:00hrs	Refreshments
16:20hrs	Open forum for discussion of difficult cases or for further talk about topics raised during the day Facilitated by Steve Cooke, Consultant Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgeon University Hospitals Coventry & Warwickshire
17:00hrs	Close

The companies sponsoring this event have had no direct input on the content and location of this meeting

